Shwartz Ilya

Ilya Schwartz graduated from the Jerusalem Rubin Academy of Music and completed his MA at the Indiana University School of Music. On his return to Israel, he began his career as a soloist and chamber music player with various ensembles, some of which he established himself. He is a member of the Musica Nova ensemble, the Alef Trio and the clarinet-guitar duo, 'Green Music' with all of whom he has made recordings. Since 1998, he has been a performer and teacher at the Music Podium summer workshop in Switzerland and in 2001 became First Clarinet with the Israel Camerata, Jerusalem. In 2004, he was appointed Second Clarinet with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra.
