

Sarah Elbaz

Israeli clarinetist Sarah Elbaz has performed with ensembles and as a soloist in Israel, USA, China, Germany and the Netherlands. Ms. Elbaz is a graduate of the Rubin Academy of Music in Tel Aviv with Richard Lesser and The University of Southern California with Mitchell Lurie.

Ms. Elbaz has participated as a performer and as an instructor in festivals and courses such as: Tanglewood, Clarinet and Klezmer in the Galilee, Beijing Clarinet Festival, Classical Winter in Jerusalem, Clarinet Days and courses of Jeunesses Musicales.

Sarah Elbaz is a recipient of the America-Israel Cultural Foundation scholarships in clarinet and chamber Music. She served as second clarinet and bass clarinet player at the Israel Opera and is a member of the Israel Clarinet Quartet.

Ms. Elbaz is a clarinet instructor and Head of the Winds department at the Israel Conservatory of Music in Tel Aviv and director of Clarinet Days course at the Jerusalem Music Center.